

SWITZERLAND SWEDEN NEW ZEALAND COSTA RICA

YEMEN AFGHANISTAN ETHIOPIA MEXICO

This is a comparison of the world's most peaceful countries and the ones with the most deaths from war occurring in their country (over 10 thousand in the last year). Does war impact a country's ability to provide clean drinking water and safe water practices to its citizens?

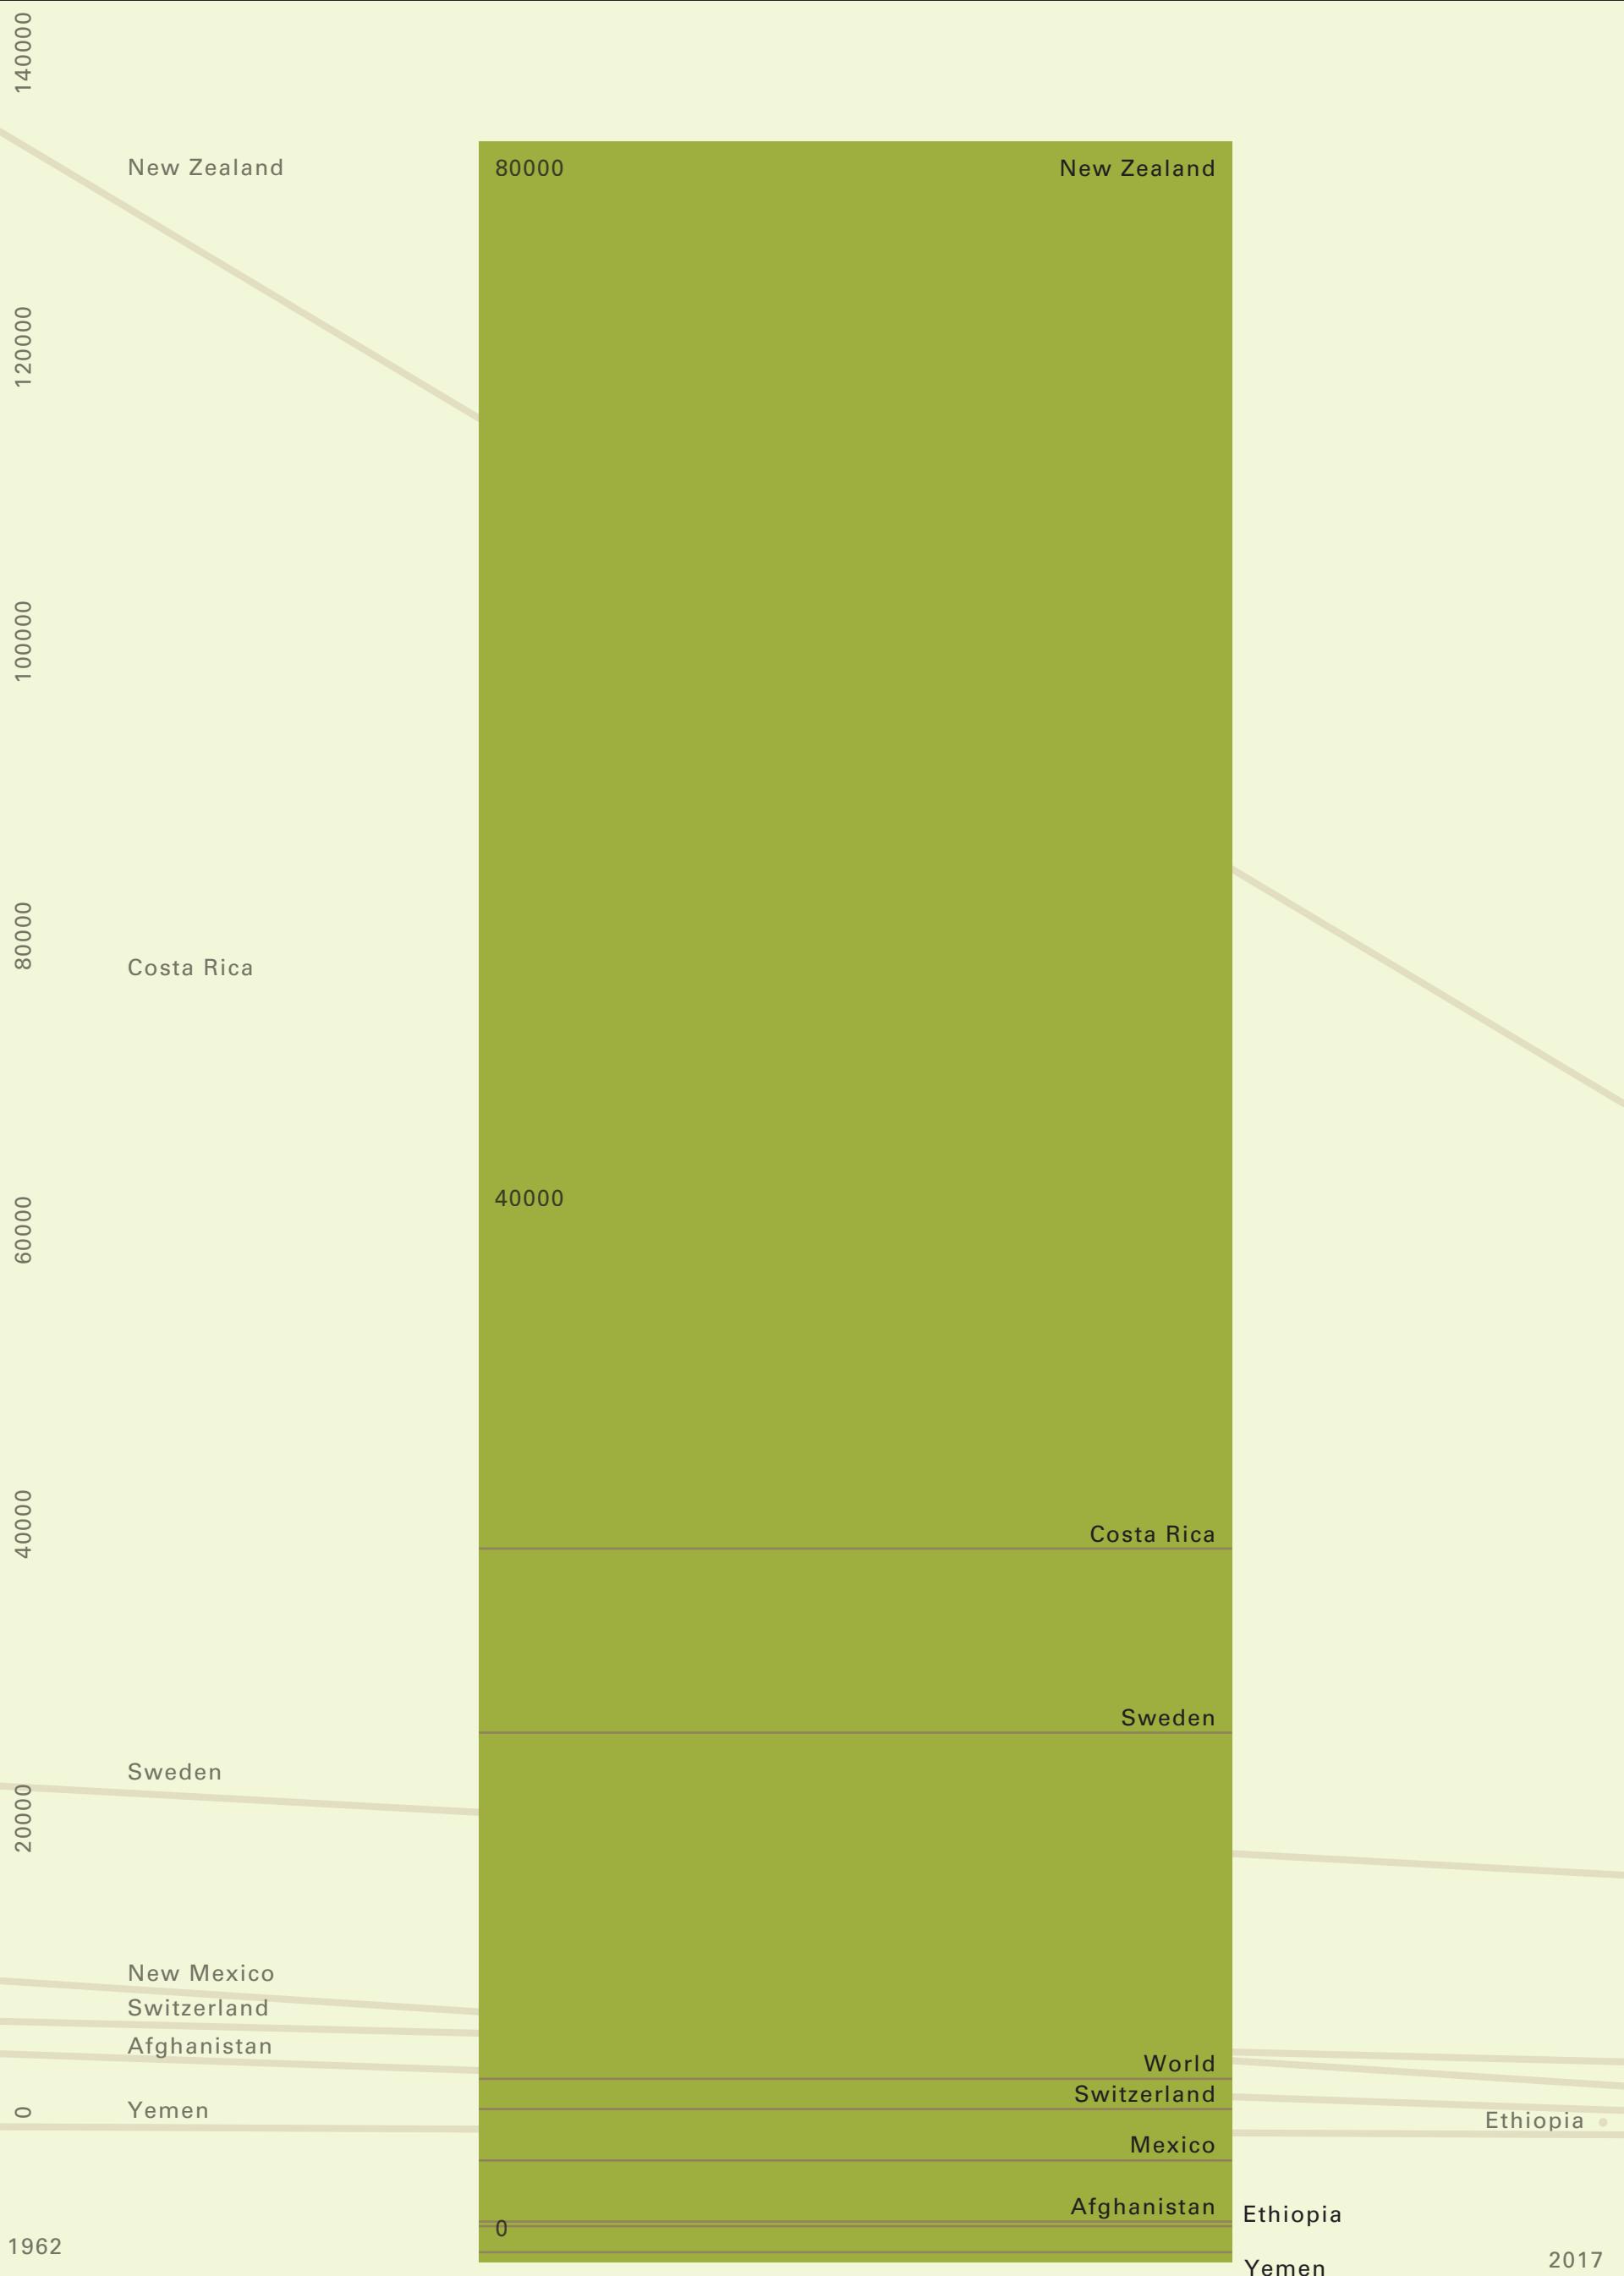

Designs by Ethan Watson

WAR PAINS

Percentages of Freshwater

Percentages of the World's Fresh Water Resources by Region

Background describes Renewable Water Resources per Capita

2017

Surface Water Only

Unimproved has no significant water treatment to decrease water borne diseases

Switzerland

Limited water can sometimes be contaminated

Basic Water is mostly safe

2015

Safely Managed is filtered

2000

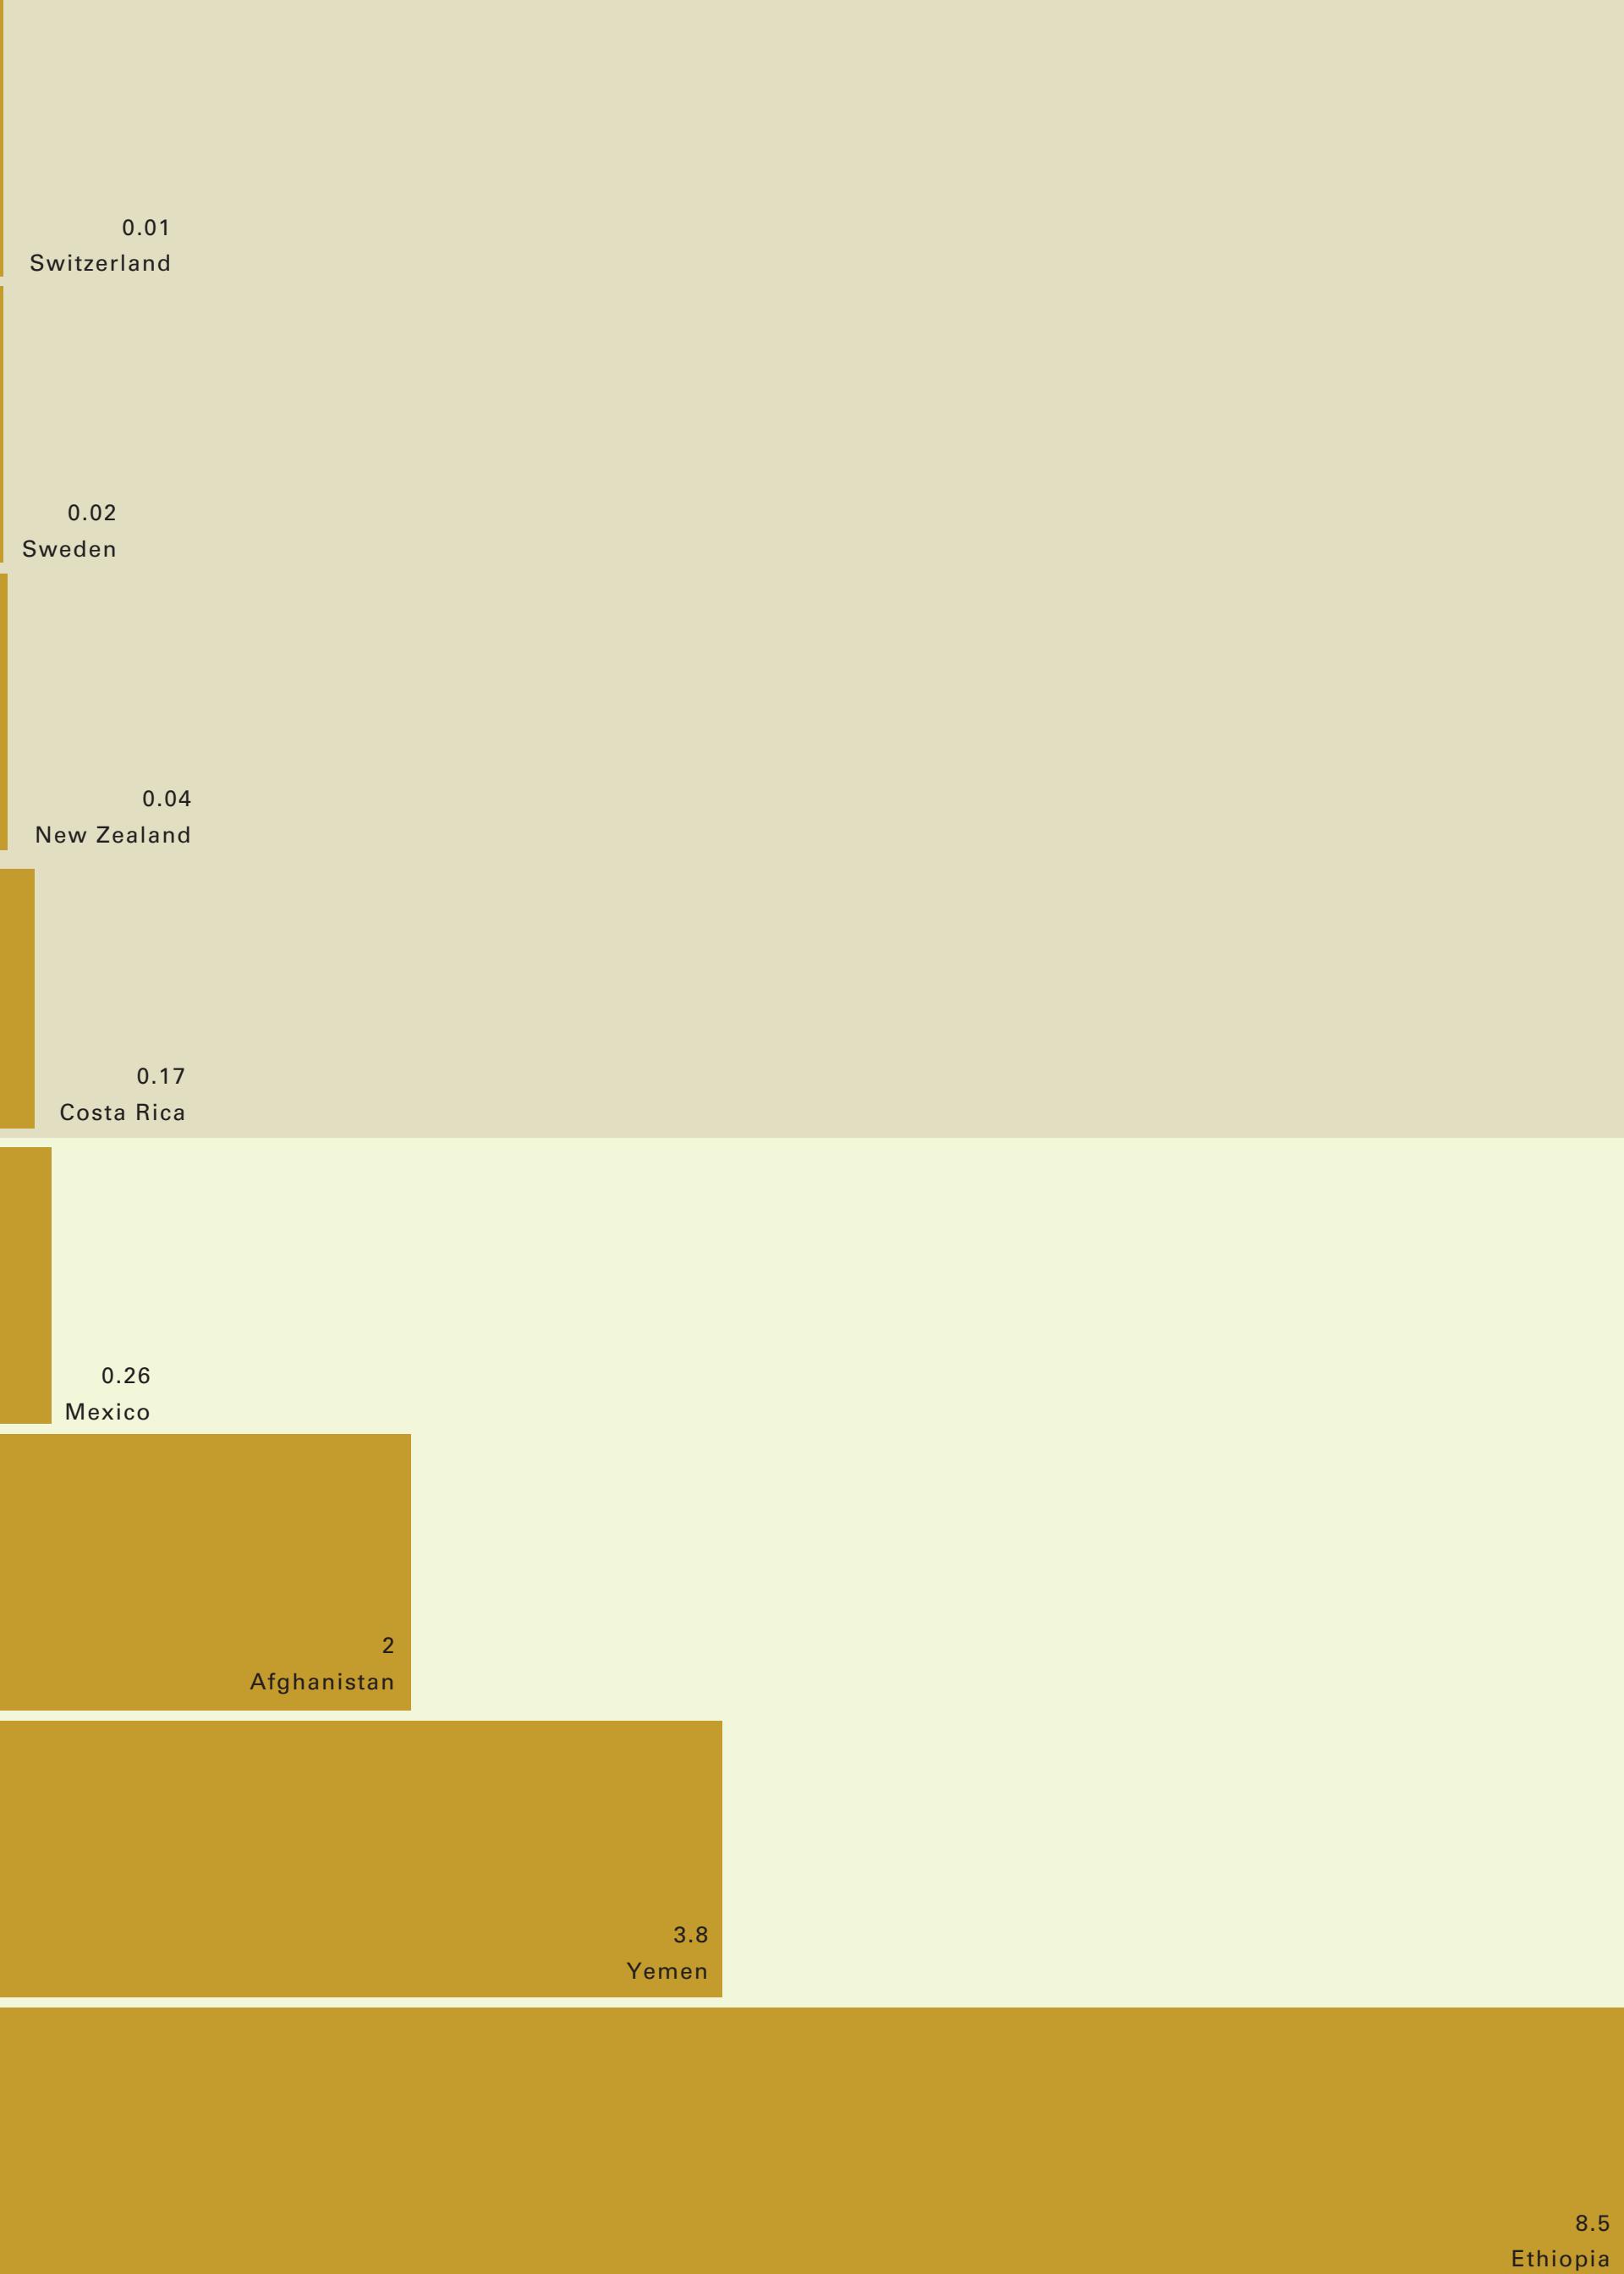

Afghanistan

Ethiopia

Safely managed water
Countries
[2000–2015]

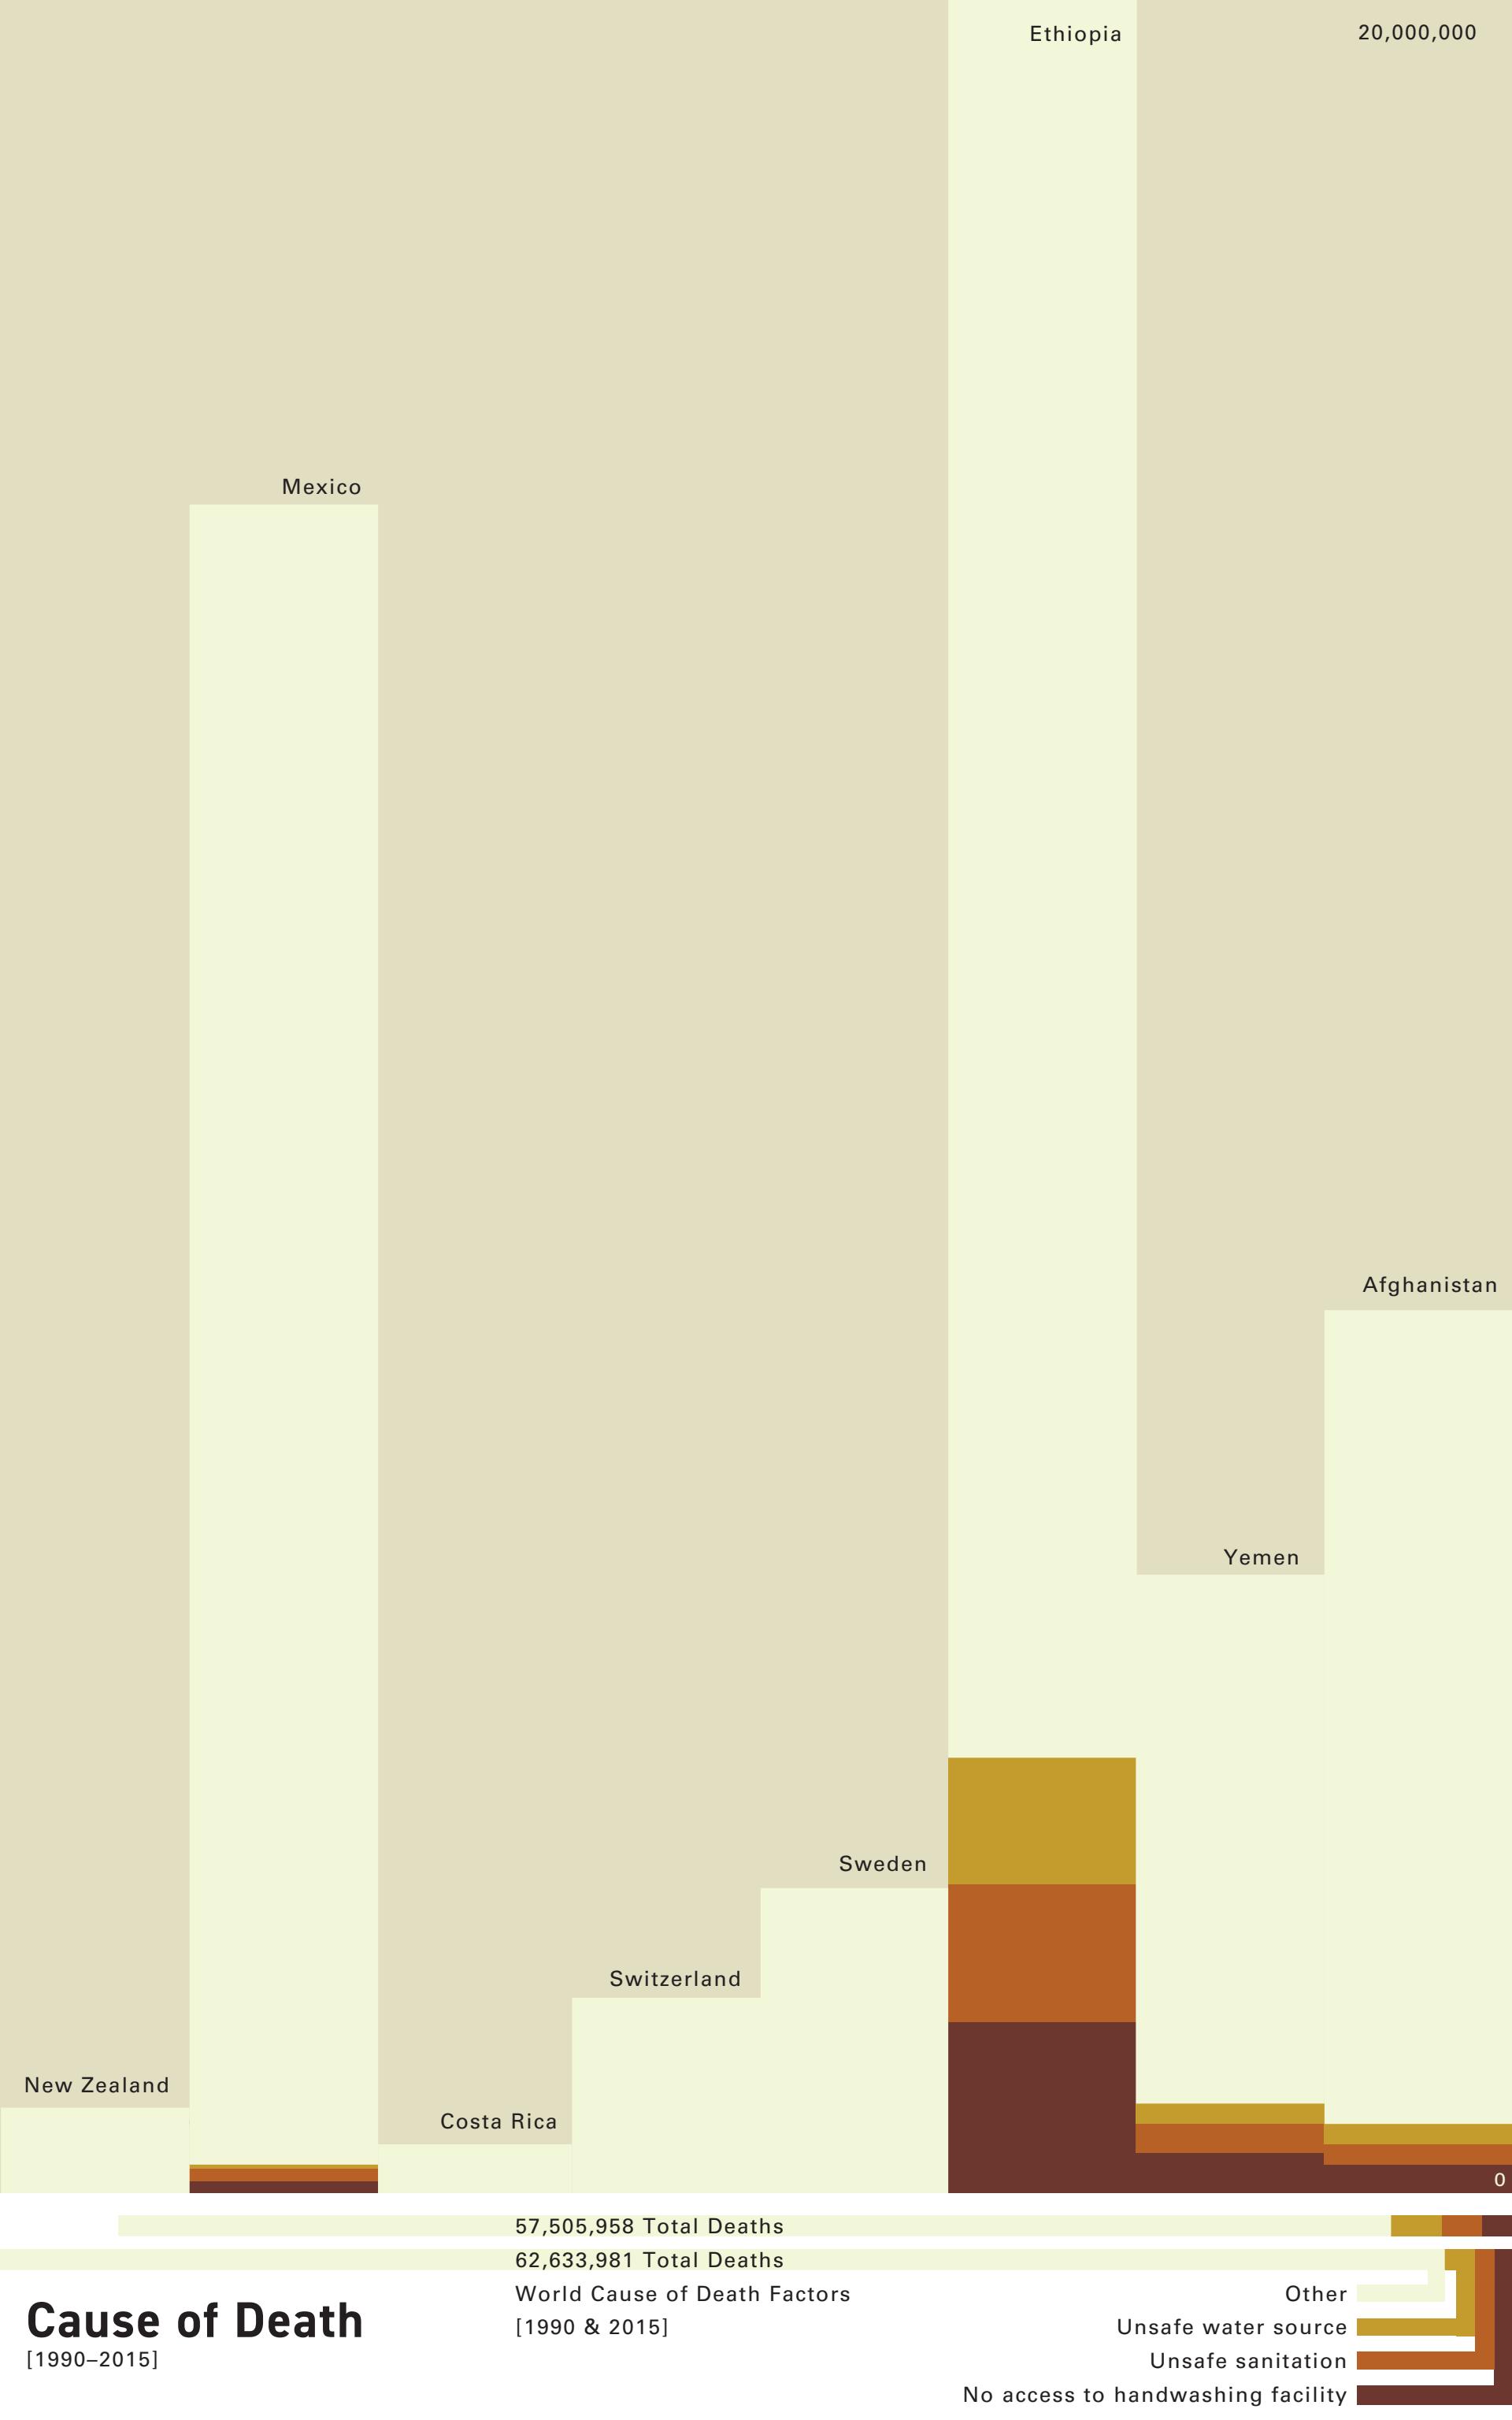

Drinking Water

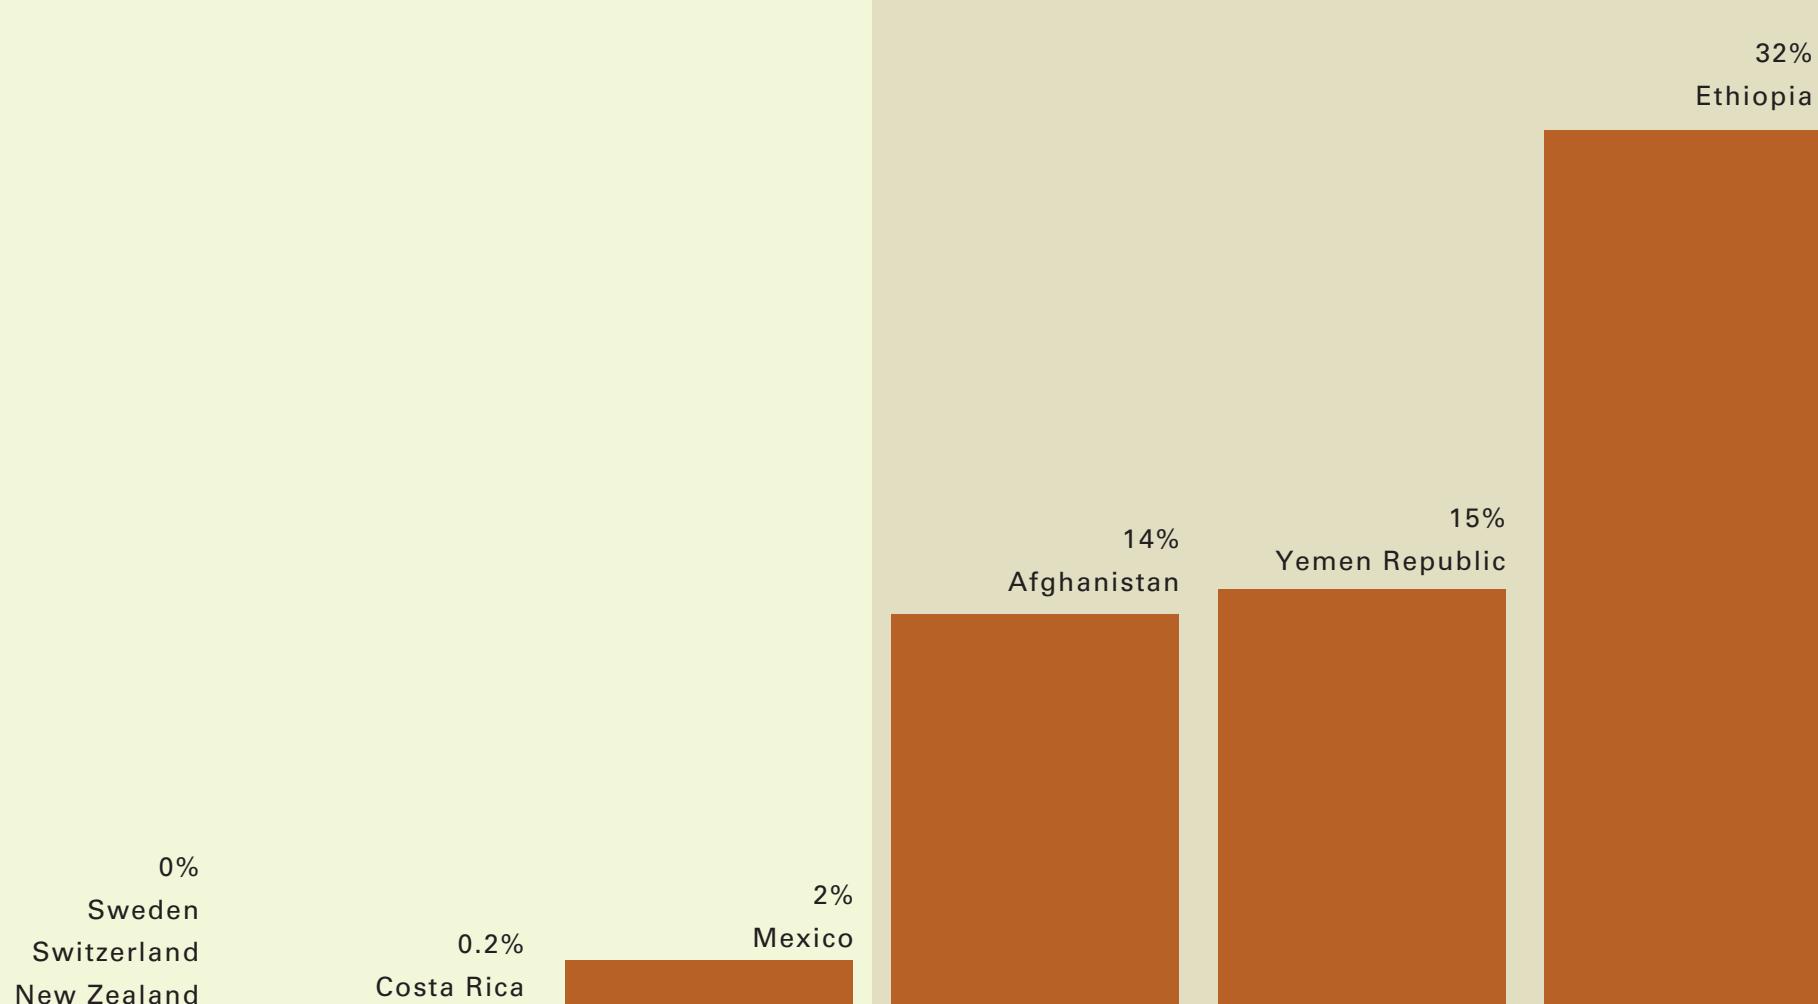

Percentages of the whole world's drinking water.

World Percentage of

Water Related Deaths

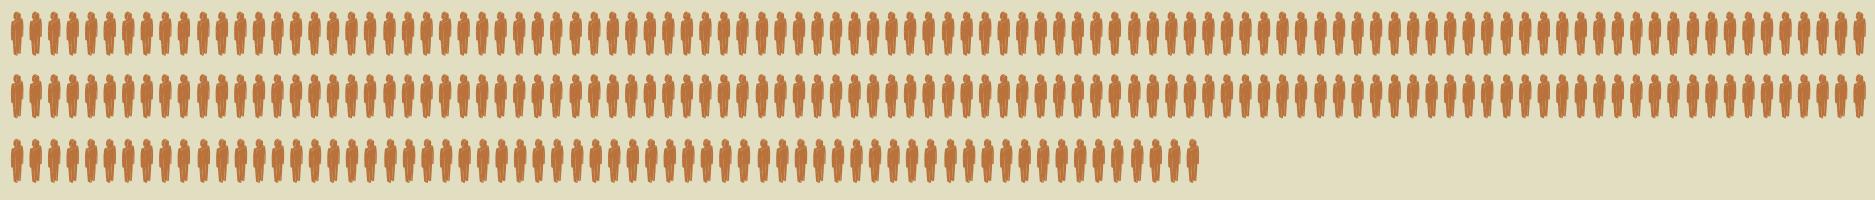

Percentage of Population

Still Openly Defecating

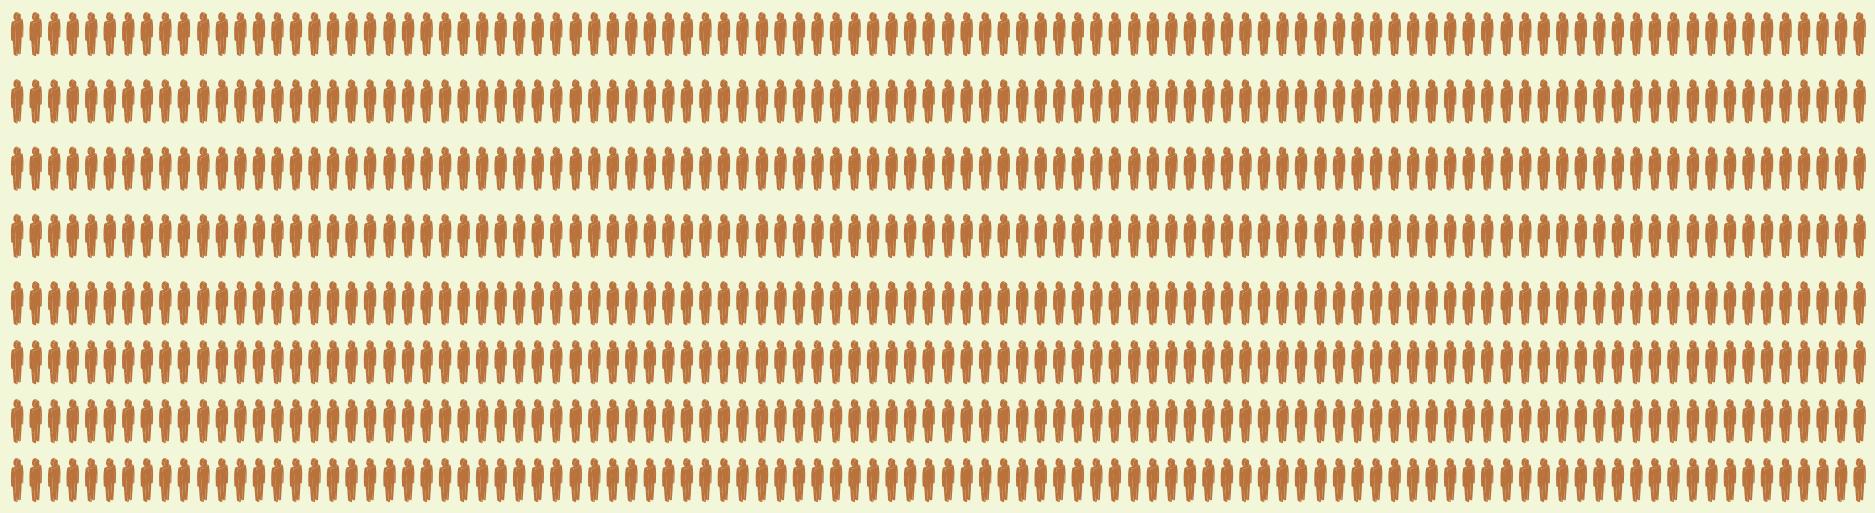

Sweden
27,743

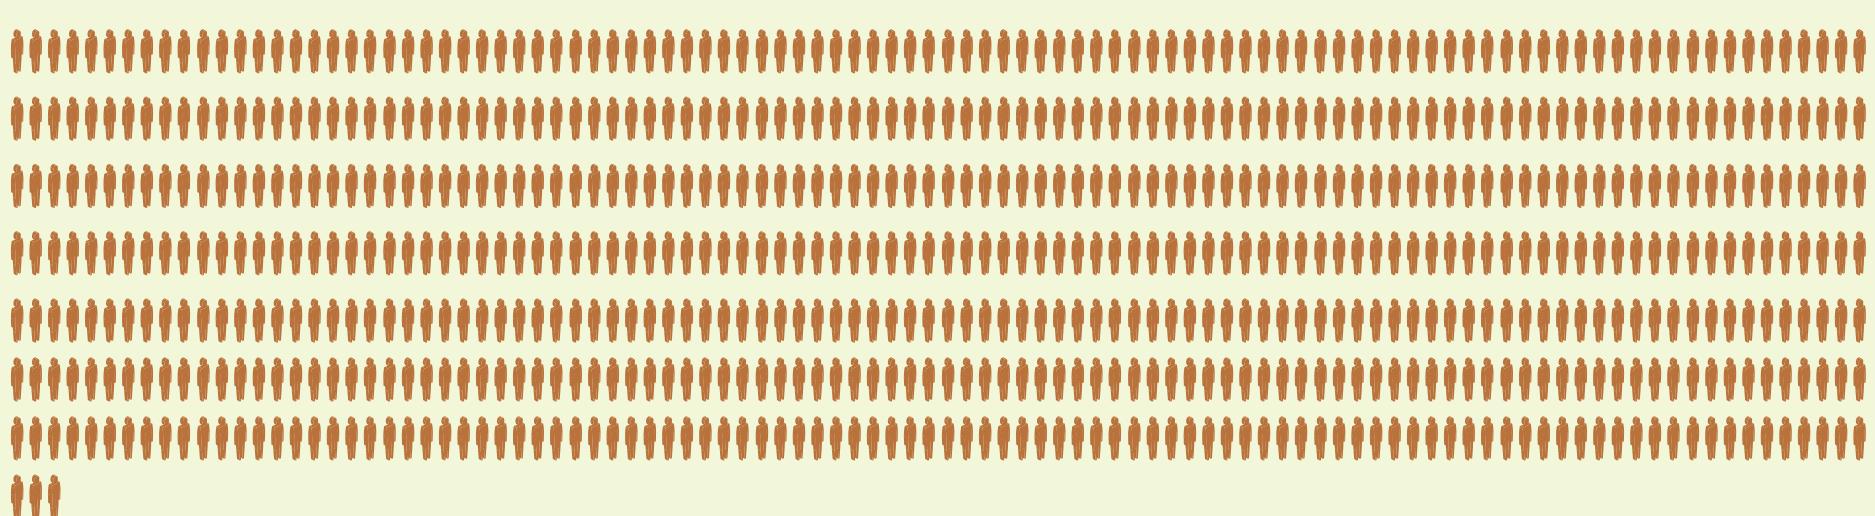

Switzerland
477,217

Afghanistan
26,369,007

Tropic of Cancer

Costa Rica
957694

Ethiopia
90,787,886

Mexico
70,297,235

Tropic of Capricorn

New Zealand
205,777

 Per 100,000

Yemen not pictured

People Without Safe Drinking Water

Citations

Drinking Water [World]

global-access-drinking-water-stacked.xlsx

<https://ourworldindata.org/water-access>

Percentage of Population Still Openly Defecating

global-pct-practicing-open-defecation.xlsx

<https://data.worldbank.org/indicator/SI.SAN.ODFC.ZS>

water WAR PAINS

Does War impact a country's ability to provide safe water
to its citizens?